

The Two Laws and the Standard of Judgment

pg 1

Rev 11:18, 19 At the time of the judgment, the ark of the testament was seen in heaven.

Rev 15:5 The temple is called the "tabernacle of testimony."

Ex 24:12,18 Moses was on the mount 40 days when he went after the law of God.

Ex 25:8-10 During the 40 days, God gave directions for building the earthly sanctuary. The ARK was of prime importance.

Ex 25:16 The "TESTIMONY" must be put into the ark.

Ex 31:18 The testimony was on tables of stone.

Deut 10:1-5 The 10 commandments were on 2 tables of stone, so are the "Testament" or covenant in the ark.

Deut 5:22 God spoke and wrote this law and added nothing to it.

Deut 4:13 This law is called God's COVENANT.

Lev 1: 1-4 The gospel or remedy for sin was illustrated by a system of sacrifices.

Lev 7:37,38 This system was regulated by law.

Neh 8:1-3, 14; 2 Chron 31:3; 34:14 This law or Moses' writings were often called "The Law of Moses" and sometimes "The Law of the Lord" (given by Moses).

Deut 31:24-26 Moses' law was written in a book, and placed in or "by" (RY) the side of the ark of the covenant. The 10 Commandment law defined sin. Moses' writings explained the remedy of the gospel.

Dan 9:10,11; Neh 9:13,14; 2Kings 18:12; 21:8 There are two laws. God's covenant, spoken by His own voice and written by His own finger. Other statutes, civil, and ceremonial, were written by Moses at God's command.

Rom 3:20 By the 10 commandment law is the knowledge of sin.

Rom 3:24,25 A remedy for sin is provided in Christ.

Heb 8:1-5 The earthly sanctuary's services were a copy or pattern of Christ's work for our redemption.

The Two Laws and the Standard of Judgment

pg 2

Heb 9:8-11 The ordinances (ceremonies) were figures for that age.

Eph 2: 15 The law of ordinances was abolished at the cross.

Col 2:14 -17 The ordinances - meats, drinks, and Sabbath days which were SHADOWS were nailed to the cross. (Lev 23:3 The 7th day is the Sabbath of the Lord -- a memorial of creation.)

Lev 23:4 The yearly feasts also had holy days.

Lev 23:5-8 Two days of Passover week were holy.

Lev 23:15,16 Pentecost was a holy day, yearly Sabbath.

Lev 23:24, 27, 32 1st and 10th days of 7th month were yearly Sabbaths.

Lev 23:39 The 15th and 23rd days of the 7th month were yearly Sabbaths.

Lev 23:37, 38 These shadow Sabbaths were BESIDES the Sabbath of the Lord -- the 7th day of verse 3.

Lev 23:13 The meats and drinks that were shadows, were offerings of food and drink offered on the yearly Sabbath days, and with the burnt offerings, etc.

Col 2:14 -17 The ordinances -- yearly Sabbaths, etc. which were shadows of Christ, ended at the cross. The ORDINANCES explained CHRIST, the REMEDY for SIN.

Rom 7:7 The TEN commandments DEFINE SIN.

James 1:22-25; 2:10-12 The Law of Liberty, the 10 commandment law, is the standard of judgment.

Rev 11:18, 19 In 1844 when the judgment began, John saw the ark containing the law in heaven.

Rev 22:14 Those found keeping the commandments will enter the city.
